All participants shall follow the instructions of the Safety Inspectors. All registered vessels will be given an assigned number to be affixed to the vessel so it is visible to the judging area (starboard side). All people on board shall have available, and are encouraged to wear, a personal floatation device. Contact the Historical Society in advance if you need to borrow a PFD.

There is a concrete boat ramp for trailers at Pepacton Park and a grass lawn area to put in at Covered Bridge Park. Come to the Boardwalk area early to check-in and receive your boat number. You can register on the day of the event but it is highly suggested you arrive early. Line-up will be at 12:40 PM at the sandbar area East of the Boardwalk (200 yards upstream of the Covered Bridge). The parade will be starting at 1:00 PM with George Washington heroically crossing the Delaware River. The parade contestants will be called past the judging area & introduced by loudspeaker. Prizes will be announced immediately after the parade.
